

BLACK SUN CINEMA NC

Sunday 12 August @ 1.30pm

Black Sun, Cork's weirdo/outer limits music and film event, is presenting its first ever all-film event in partnership with Triskel Christchurch. Adventurous audiences with a taste for the more far-out side of experimental cinema will be treated to a whole afternoon of dreamlike and hauntingly unsettling avant-garde visions.

PROGRAMME 1: IRISH UNDERGROUND

Schema (Maximilian Le Cain, 2012)
 The Man in Autumn (Dean Kavanagh, 2010)
 Good Evening (Dean Kavanagh, 2012)
 Homo Sapiens Project 92 (Rouzbeh Rashidi, 2012)
 The Hamilton Cell (Maximilian Le Cain, 2009)
 Homo Sapiens Project 71 (Rouzbeh Rashidi, 2012)

PROGRAMME 2: FRANS ZWARTJES

Birds (1968)
 Visual Training (1969)
 Spare Bedroom (1969)
 Spectator (1970)
 Living (1971)

PROGRAMME 3

The Nest (James Fotopoulos, 2003)

American underground legend James Fotopoulos' feature The Nest (2003) "makes it seem as though he is some extraterrestrial visitor photographing humans for the first time" (Variety) and is ideal, mind-warping viewing for David Lynch fans who think they've seen everything. The five-film mini-retrospective of Frans Zwartjes' claustrophobically stylised short films fully justifies the reputation of this poet of voyeurism and sexual tension as perhaps Holland's preeminent experimental filmmaker. And three of Ireland's most uncompromising alternative filmmakers, Rouzbeh Rashidi, Dean Kavanagh and Maximilian Le Cain, will be on hand to present a series of their more disturbing shorts.
